

ARIZONA LIST

ELECTING PRO-CHOICE DEMOCRATIC WOMEN ACROSS THE STATE OF ARIZONA

Proposition 139 - the Arizona Abortion Access Initiative - is on the Ballot

In the spirit of our Presidential candidate, we bring you a newsletter of real joy. We're thrilled to announce that Proposition 139 is officially qualified. This is Arizona's chance to restore and protect the right to access abortion care, once and for all. Your efforts made this possible—thank you!

Now, it's time to spread the word, show your support and help get it passed! Your continued advocacy is crucial as we approach the general election. Ballots arrive to early voters in 50 days. Every conversation and every show of support will help secure a victory for reproductive rights in Arizona.

Want to show your love for Prop 139? We have Prop 139 merch available at all of our offices! Stop by and pick up your gear to proudly display your support for reproductive rights.

CELEBRATING OUR PRIMARY WINS!

YOUR MEMBERSHIP MADE THE DIFFERENCE IN PRIMARIES ACROSS THE STATE. WHILE MANY CANDIDATES ARE ADVANCING TO THE GENERAL ELECTION, WE ARE CELEBRATING THOSE WHO HAVE SECURED THEIR VICTORIES IN JULY!

STRONG VOICES ON CITY GOVERNMENT

Gloria Solorio
Avondale City Council

"Winning my first campaign wouldn't have been possible without the unwavering support and belief of so many incredible people. I am deeply thankful for each of you who stood by me, worked tirelessly, and shared this journey. This victory is ours, together."

Karen Watts
Yuma City Council

"Thank you Arizona List for your steadfast support. In January, Yuma will have gender parity on the City council for the first time since the early 2000s. Carol Smith, Leslie McClendon, and Karen Watts, all endorsed by Arizona List, will all be serving in January."

Benita Beckles
Goodyear City Council

It is with deep appreciation that I thank Arizona List for their support during my campaign for Goodyear City Council. My weekly meetings with Hannah were a blessing. The workshops and resources were quite helpful. Lastly, I cannot end these words without thanking the Late Dr Gerae Peten as she was the that introduced me to Arizona List.

Kathy Kinsella

Holli Ploog

& Sedona City Council

"We want to express how deeply grateful we are to the voters of Sedona. Their confidence and faith is very humbling. We feel honored to serve the community for another four years. We also want to thank the members of AZ List for their support of my campaign and for the recruitment, training, and financial assistance for women to run for office. When we run, we win!"

NEW VOICES AT THE LEGISLATURE

Lauren Kuby
LD8 Senate

Lauren Kuby, a former two-term councilmember and vice mayor in Tempe, is a long-time advocate for consumer, environmental, and worker protections. Lauren is a recognized national champion for climate action and cities and local governments as incubators of innovation.

Anna Abeytia
LD24 House

Anna Abeytia was born and raised in Maryvale. Since graduating from high school in 2014, she has worked on numerous campaigns here in Arizona, and knew that she needed to do more than help Democrats get elected and pass or ballot initiatives.

Janeen Conolly
LD8 House

Amazing to find myself in this moment - Thank you, Arizona List. Thank you, "Team Janeen". And Thank you, thank you VOTERS! Incredibly grateful to have made it through the primary. Now, on to a big blue win in November!

APPOINTMENTS MOVED UP TO ELECTEDS

Junelle Caverro
LD11 House

As a small business owner, Junelle Caverro has witnessed firsthand the challenges entrepreneurs and local businesses face. Her work involves assisting them with strategic planning, acquiring grants, and implementing effective marketing strategies.

Sarah Liguori
LD5 House

"It is inspiring to see Democratic women leadership continue to grow and effectuate change in Arizona. I am humbled to work alongside these smart women, and grateful for the work of Arizona List in helping us step into these roles. Together, we will do the hard work."

Betty Villegas
LD20 House

Betty Villegas is a third-generation and lifelong resident of Pima County. Betty's experience in government and housing enables her to understand the structure of state government and work on equitable housing solutions for all.

Arizona List Board: Pam Grissom, chair; Darrell Bakeman, Stephanie Berger, Emily Breuker, Elizabeth Danielson, Karan English, Luis Heredia, Nicky Indicavitch, Jodi Liggett, Charlene Mendoza, Rene Morton, Sandra Otero, Ellie Pawloski-Perez, Bridget Riceci, Hildy Saizow, Lori Shepherd, Gary Tucker, Andrea Whiting, Pat Wiedhopf, Vashi Worley Moore, Harriet Young, Ginger Yrun

PROTECTING WOMEN LEADERS

Pima County Attorney Laura Conover

"I want to thank Arizona List and its members for their support, and I congratulate you all on 20 years of advocacy. Together we chose a smarter and healthier approach for our community. Together we chose justice"

Coconino Supervisor Lena Fowler

Lena Fowler is a beacon of leadership, resilience, and innovation in Coconino County, Arizona. With a rich background and an unwavering dedication to public service, she is currently serving her fourth consecutive term as Coconino County Supervisor for District 5.

LD21 House Representative Stephanie Stahl Hamilton

Civic engagement is about caring for our community. I was both honored and humbled by the number of people who volunteered to help me win my primary election. Arizona List provides the backbone and foundation for many of our campaigns and drives engagement at all levels of government. We are fortunate to benefit this organization that has changed the face of politics in Arizona.

REACHING NEW LEVELS OF LEADERSHIP

LD24 Senator Analise Ortiz

"I am so appreciative to Arizona List and its members for their constant support, mentorship, and guidance.

This organization was critical in helping me win my first election and has been a strong partner in my governance as I fight at the Legislature for reproductive justice."
